

Income Remittance

THAIEPAY system will summarize merchants' income in each month and remit the income after deducting fee into merchants' bank accounts on the 10th of the following month.

For example, in January, a merchant has monthly income 10,000 baht. THAIEPAY will deduct 4% out of 10,000 baht. It means we exactly deduct 400 baht from 10,000 Baht. Therefore, merchant will receive 9,600 baht on 10th February.

However, THAIEPAY has released additional regulations regarding income remittance. That is to say, merchants can request THAIEPAY to make income remittance for merchants earlier, semi-monthly or weekly.

1. Merchant who has been using THAIEPAY service for greater than 6 months
2. Merchant who has no record of fraudulent customers and charge back issue
3. Merchant who has monthly income over 100,000 baht/month can receive income every 15 days (Semi-Monthly). Merchant who has monthly income over 500,000 baht/month can receive income every week (Weekly)
